

“ A paradise to discover ”

Feel the waves of the sea, cover the river with the boats that go up and down, listen to the silence of the fishermen, cultivate time from a mussel-bed, cycle surrounded by the fauna of the Garxal, walk in the rice fields' mud, recover energies in the mouth of the Ebro river... Emotions and feelings to live, to coexist and to visit the sense of freedom of Deltebre, a village that moves forward, step by step, on its way to make this natural attraction its raison d'être. A paradise to discover, a paradise to enjoy! ”

Lluís Soler, Mayor of Deltebre

Natural and unique landscapes

Deltebre is the best place to discover nature thanks to its location in the heart of the Ebro Delta National Park. River, sea, river islands, lagoons, virgin beaches... There are thousands of unique settings to discover a land where the rice cycle characterises the colour of the landscapes.

Flavour explosion

Our culinary wealth is one of our main attractions. We have a wide variety of local high-quality fresh and produced products. Let your senses flow on a gastronomic experience thanks to the fusion between our most traditional and modern recipes.

“ The palates' revolution ”

The wealth of our lands and our river gives us excellent products, such as the PDO Rice of the Ebro Delta, among many others. Your senses will be directly transported to the garden, river and sea thanks to the intense flavours full of contrasts. The gastronomy is one of the best ways to know more about a place. In Deltebre you will have the opportunity to learn more about our history and culture through our cuisine. Bon appétit! ”

Anna Giménez, Deltebre City Council's Deputy Mayor for Economic Revitalisation and Tourist and Cultural Approach

Deltebre, natural attraction

Get ready to dive into a unique mosaic of natural textures. Escape from routine and feel some of the most intense sensations of your life: walks among rice fields, painted sunsets, river kayaking, horseback riding along lost paths... Come to explore, live and discover Deltebre.

“ Strengthening bonds ”

First and foremost, festivities are social events that become perfect opportunities to strengthen the bonds of a village as ours. They are a sample of our identity and it is our goal to enrich it with the participation of all citizens and all those who visit us. We want to be an example of enjoyment. We know how to have a good time and we want to show it to you! Have a good summer and a good festivity! ”

Carlos Serra, Deltebre City Council's Deputy Mayor for Social Revitalisation and Citizen Participation
